

Title: Managing My
books and articles 7/10/2023

1. Today, interestingly enough, there was a writers conference in the central library, which I accidentally attended 2. I & also checked on my website, edrisibalama
.com, and my books,
briefly on archive.org
under the search term
'edris kibalama'
3. I am just trying to manage my book contents online, read and re-read my books and get into the flow of the
'edris kibalama'
prophetic writer mindset and also to take my own admissions
and implement them
in my life, before
over-propagating to others
